MANAGER GRIFFITH POSITIVE TO PITCH OUR JOE TO-MORROW

Rumors to Contrary Promptly Denied, With Statement That Promises to Richmonders Will Be Kept. Tickets Go on Sale To-Day for the "Boehling Special"—Band Will Accompany Rooters.

"Boehling Special" Facts.

Railroad tickets at $2.75 for the round trip go on sale to-day at Elba Station and at the Richmond Transfer Company.

Joe Boehling will pitch Thursday's game against the Detroit Tigers. You can announce that as a positive fact.

Confirmation of Boehling doing the mound work was secured to set at rest various rumors, which spread over Richmond last night relative to Boehling not working on Friday.

Thus setting at rest any disquieting rumors, all attention will be centered on the excursion which will be known as the "Boehling Special," which will leave Elba Station to-morrow at 10 o'clock to carry the friends of the young pitcher to the ball park.

The Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railway Company will furnish its cleanest, best and largest coaches, and there will be a sufficient number of coaches to properly take care of all who make the trip.

Through the efforts of Dr. Parker and others, Kessner's Municipal Band will accompany the Richmond rooters, playing selections on the train going and returning, and at the ball park in Washington.

The excursion will be featured with a delegation of thirty or more from "Commission Row," all attired alike and carrying banners and blowing horns.

By clouting the ball at opportune times and playing a fast defensive game, the Times-Dispatch baseball team defeated the Journal boys yesterday at Broad Street Park by the score of 9 to 4.

In the first inning the Journals fairly took the Times boys off their feet by making four hits and six runs.

Letters from Newport News state that a delegation from that city would like to join the Richmond delegation, but this is hardly possible as the train which leaves Newport News at 7:30 o'clock does not arrive in Richmond until 1:00 o'clock.

Richmond fans of rather the object of the day—paying a tribute to Joe Boehling—has not lost interest because of his defeat Monday.

Center Fielder Whaley and Left Fielder Bunting, of the Journals, ran into each other in trying for Shoehs line when they came to the base.
